

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (DOJ)
INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES PROGRAM (ISP)
ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY/REQUEST FOR SIMILAR Rape/Robbery Series

September 23, 2004; December 18, 2004; February 19, 2005

Alameda County Sexual Assault Felony Enforcement (SAFE) Task Force

SUSPECT: Unknown (may use the name "Poncho")

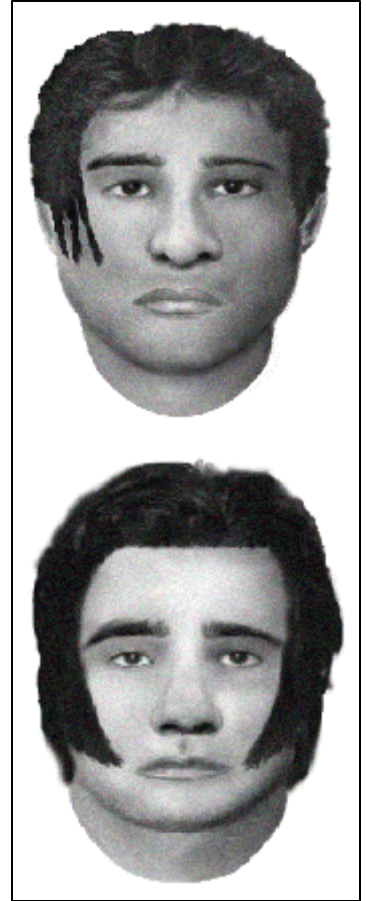

PHYSICAL: Hispanic male; 5'03" to 5'05"; 160 to 180 lbs.; 20-30 years of age; long black hair (ponytail); brown eyes; medium to dark complexion

CLOTHING: Shiny red shirt; brown pants; burgundy or pink sweater; blue pull-over shirt

WEAPON: Hands

VEHICLE: None

OUTSTANDING FEATURES: Multi-colored tattoo on left shoulder and small tattoo on left forearm; possible slight Spanish accent

INFORMATION: The Alameda County SAFE Task Force is requesting assistance in identifying a suspect in a series of sexual assaults and robberies.

MODUS OPERANDI SUMMARY: On three separate occasions between 12:00-5:00 p.m., suspect attacks a white or Asian female (age 40-50) walking alone by wrapping his arm around victim's neck and covering her mouth with his hand. Suspect forces victim to the ground and attempts to rape and sodomize victim, but has difficulty achieving an erection. Suspect then digitally penetrates victim's vagina and anus, orally copulates victim, and kisses victim on the mouth. Suspect's use of force (biting, punching, strangling) escalates when resisted. Suspect robs victim and flees the scene on foot. In two instances, suspect took victim's pants which contained money. Suspect told one victim that he wanted "a young person that was clean" and said, "I love pretty young girl." Suspect also told victim that he liked her vagina.

CONTACT: Alameda County SAFE Task Force at (510) 268-2217

Prepared by: California Department of Justice, Investigative Services Program, (916) 227- 4736